

SANDY EDENFIELD

Sandy Edenfield, 59, stepped from this world into the presence of Jesus on March 15, 2023. She was born May 19, 1963 in Jacksonville. She was a longtime resident of Folkston, Georgia and a member of Little Phoebe Primitive Baptist Church. If she could speak to us to day she would tell of the wondrous beauty of heaven and tell us all to wipe our tears and cry not for her. With every drop of rain and ray of sunshine to close our eyes and feel her near. For she will never be more than a heartbeat away. Standing with Jesus to welcome her home were her parents Charlie and Emmie Wright; and parents in love Zelton and Sue Dixon.

Sandy was a wife of 35 years to her best friend and husband, Elder Floyd Edenfield; mother to Brandon (Destiny) Pooser, Brandi (Casey) Chriswell; and Sugar, her 4-legged fur baby; grandmother to four wonderful grandchildren Emmie, Madison, Mason and Miles; sister to Debbie Platts, Doug Wright and Francis Herrera; and many extended family members and friends loved Sandy. Each of them will feel the heartache of her passing in the days ahead.

The family received friends Sunday, March 19 at Shepard-Roberson Funeral Home in Folkston. Sandy's homecoming celebration was held Monday March 20 also at the funeral home with Elders Kyle Lloyd, Willis Lee and Randy Strickland leading the celebration. Graveside services followed at Little Phoebe Cemetery.

Pallbearers were Cody Dixon, Kevin Wright, Hal Gowen, Justin King, Brian Edenfield and Richard Lafferty.
