

SANDY TAYLOR ACHAS

Our beautiful Sandy Taylor Achas passed away on Saturday, April 20, 2019 at Baptist Medical Center South in Jacksonville. She was born November 12, 1969 in Jacksonville. She was a beloved daughter, sister, mother, Nene, aunt, cousin and faithful friend to all who knew her.

Sandy grew up in Jacksonville and attended Sandalwood High School. She was best known for being a warm, kind and welcoming person. She loved her grandchildren immensely and treasured her role as Nene. Sandy enjoyed many outdoor activities including camping, fishing, and going to the river. She also enjoyed cooking large meals for her family and friends to enjoy together on holidays.

She was preceded in death by her parents Byron and Shirley Hitchcock; and her siblings Christine and Christopher Jones. Sandy's family would like to thank the many friends who prayed for and supported her during this difficult time.

Her spirit is carried on by her love of almost 20 years, Efrain Flores; sons Gerard (Ryan) Achas, Raymond Achas and Sean Achas; grandsons Ayble and Noah; brother Rudy Taylor; daughter-in-love Victoria Manning; and grandchildren-in-love Greyson, Brooklyn, Cayden and London; as well as many nieces, nephews, cousins, aunts, uncles and friends.

A visitation and celebration of life service was held Friday, April 26 at Nassau Funeral Home.
