

SHIRLEY GRAY SMITH

Shirley Mae Gray Smith, 63, of Callahan, went to her heavenly home surrounded by her loved ones on May 3, 2019. Shirley was preceded in death by her father and mother Bobby L., Sr. and Jessie Mae Gray; her three brothers Bobby L. Gray, Jr., Roy C. Gray and Jack C. Gray; and one sister LilaLee Gray.

Shirley had a love beyond understanding for her husband, children and grandchildren. She loved going fishing with her husband and browsing around different thrift stores and antique stores looking for treasures. She didn't meet a stranger and if she stopped and talked to you she would talk for hours no matter who you were. She will be greatly and deeply missed by her loved ones and all her knew her.

Shirley is survived by her beloved husband of 34 years, David A. Smith; three daughters Jessie M. Parks of Jacksonville, Josie Lee (Joshua) of Glenn St. Mary and Jennifer (Kevin) A. Smith of Callahan; her four grandchildren Khloe, Bobby, Gauge and Bannon; and one brother Walter (Ada) Gray of Sturtevant, Wisconsin; several nieces and nephews; and her two dogs Ally and Lady who she adored.
