

WALTER C. ADAMS

Mr. Walter C. 'Walt' Adams, 79, of Bryceville, passed away Saturday, March 21, 2020. He was born in Jacksonville to the late Walter Frank and Virginia Hesters Adams and was a 35-year Bryceville resident.

Having grown up with a passion for short wave radios, he opened a TV and radio repair shop after fulfilling his service in the United States Navy. He was an avid collector of short wave radios and postage stamps. Mr. Adams was a talented artist and loved to surprise his friends by giving his drawings as tokens of friendship and appreciation. An animal lover, he enjoyed feeding the birds and squirrels around his home and was especially fond of his dogs. He was known as a "people person"; a happy, peace loving man who loved God and attending church when his health allowed. Mr. Adams was most happy working in the woodshop with his nephew, Clay. He held a special appreciation for his caregivers at Fresenius Kidney Care in Macclenny and loved bringing candy for them when he had appointments.

He is survived by his caregivers, nephew Clayton Hickox; and niece Cindy Hickox, both of Bryceville; sons Eddie (Brenda) Adams and David (Debbie) Adams, all of Jacksonville; brother William Adams of Jacksonville; and numerous other family members and friends.

He was preceded in death by his parents; brother James Adams; sister Ruth Hickox and brother-in-law Eddie Hickox.

A private graveside service will be held and a public celebration will be planned at a later date.

In lieu of flowers, Mr. Adams' family requests donations made to Nassau County Animal Services. Warren Funeral Services of Baldwin is honored to serve this family.
