

WANDA KILPATRICK PHILLIPS

Wanda Kilpatrick Phillips, 69, of Hilliard, went home to be with her Lord and Savior Friday, February 18, 2022. She was born in Jacksonville, to the late Louis F. Kilpatrick, Sr. and Willene K. Goodwin.

Wanda was married to the love of her life and soulmate, Russell (Rusty) Phillips, for 25 years. She dedicated nearly half her life to working for the Duval County School Board, from where she eventually retired to move on to the next journey of her life, sharing a very successful construction company with her son Kenneth W. Hunter, Jr. She loved reading her Bible, singing, playing the piano, shopping, hunting, and sometimes, just having fun on the 4-wheeler with her dog Belle and the kids. Wanda was all about her family and helping others and enjoyed spending time with all of them. She was also a faithful member of First Baptist Church of Hilliard. Wanda is preceded in death by her parents; and her brother Louis F. Kilpatrick, Jr.

She's survived by her husband Russell "Rusty" Phillips; former husband and friend Kenny Hunter, Sr., son Kenneth W. Hunter, Jr. (Sara Ann); daughter Tonya M. (Chris) Sawyer; grandchildren Sabrina (George) Register, Rodney Claxton, Jr., Hannah Hunter, Easton Hunter, Ava Carpenter and Aspen Carpenter; great-grandchildren Rosalee Register and Dallas Claxton; sisters Judy Harris and June Constande; as well as numerous nieces and nephews.

The family received friends and family Tuesday, February 22 prior to the funeral service held at the Chapel at Green Pine Funeral Home.
