

WAYNE MARVIN MCKENDREE

Wayne Marvin McKendree, 79, passed November 21, 2022. Wayne was a native of Florida. After serving 2 years in the US Army stationed in Vietnam, he relocated to Georgia where he met his wife Nancy. His career lead him into the commercial construction industry where he started his own company, Wayne McKendree Contractors Inc. He retired following a hard-fought battle with cancer due to Agent Orange that he was exposed to in Vietnam.

Wayne enjoyed the outdoors, camping, fishing and gardening. He especially enjoyed his yearly visits to Maine with his granddaughter Lauren McFall Nichols and great grandson Jaxson Nichols. Wayne was involved with the Georgia Vietnam Veterans Alliance where he was able to swap stories with his war hero brothers.

He is survived by his wife Nancy McKendree; sons Joey McKendree, Allen McFall and Scott McFall; sister Elaine (Craig) Hubbell; brother Jerry (Bobbie) McKendree; five grandchildren; three great-grandchildren; several nieces and nephews. He is predeceased by his father James Daniel McKendree, Sr.; mother Eva Lucille McKendree; brothers James Daniel McKendree, Jr. and Randall McKendree.

The family received friends prior to the funeral service held Friday, November 25 at West Cobb Funeral Home in Marietta, Georgia.
