

WENDALL WILBERT CREWS

Wendall Wilbert Crews, 76, of Hilliard, passed away on Thursday, November 16, 2023. He was born June 1, 1947 in Folkston, Georgia to the late Randall Wilbert Crews and Bertha Hodges Crews. Wendall worked for the Nassau County Sheriff's Office for over 20 years. He retired from the City of Jacksonville Streets and Highways Department. He was a member of First Baptist Church of Boulougne.

In addition to his parents; he is preceded in death by a sister Villa (Dean) Hodges; a brother Jerry (Linda) Crews; and a sister-in-law Wanda Jo Nelson.

He is survived by his loving wife of 58 years Donnie Jean Fowler Crews; two children Randall W. Crews and Tammy (Tom) Lynch; four grandchildren Cameron Conner, Ashley (Kyle) Morris, Macy Crews (David Melton) and Ashley (Sam) Skinner; seven great-grandchildren Ellie Skinner, Kyla Morris, Killian Conner, Cullen Conner, Ada Morris, CJ Melton and Alex Melton; and four brothers-in-law Mike (Margaret) Fowler, Kenneth (Peggy) Fowler, Scott Fowler and Tim Fowler.

The family received friends Tuesday, November 21 at Shepard-Roberson Funeral Home. The funeral service was held Wednesday, November 22 at First Baptist Church of Boulougne with Pastor Jimmy Brannon and Pastor Paul Lucas officiating. Burial followed at Mill Creek Cemetery. Pallbearers were Randy Crews, Tom Lynch, Cameron Conner, Kyle Morris, Cole Hodges, Trenton Hodges, Troy Gill Jr. and Jarrett Hodges. Honorary pallbearers were Will Hodges, Troy Gill Sr., Killian Conner, Cullen Conner and Aldean Hodges.

A very special thank you to Margaret Ann Fowler for her love and dedication and to Community Hospice of Northeast Florida.

Condolences may be expressed at www.shepardrobersonfh.com. Arrangements by Shepard-Roberson Funeral Home, Folkston.