

CHRISTOPHER MCCOY SEXTON

Christopher “Chris” McCoy Sexton, 36, of Callahan, passed away on Sunday, October 6, 2024, at his residence. Chris was born November 19, 1987 in Jacksonville, to Mary Hassie Ivie Sexton and the late James Thomas Sexton. Chris was raised in Callahan and graduated from West Nassau High School in 2006. Following graduation, Chris worked in various locations until finding his true calling at the Department of Agriculture and Consumer Services as a Forestry Duty Officer Supervisor. Chris enjoyed being outdoors and loved nature. His passion was certainly fulfilled while helping coordinate and lead wildland fire responses and keep our nature safe. When not working, Chris loved reading and watching the Lord of Rings series along with playing video games. He had an amazing sense of humor; he loved to laugh and was known to bring a smile to your face.

Chris married his best friend, Niki Bozeman, on December 15, 2015, and they have enjoyed the past 9 years together. Chris was a great husband, son and friend who will be deeply missed. He cherished time with his family and also enjoyed spending time with his friends. Chris’s memory will live on and he will be forever loved all who knew him. He was preceded in death by his father James Thomas Sexton.

Chris is survived by his loving wife, Niki Bozeman of Callahan; mother, Mary Hassie Ivie Sexton of Callahan; maternal grandmother Joan Sanders of Callahan; uncle Randy Williams; aunt Jeanine Cribbs; along with several extended family members and friends.

Arrangements under the direction of Nassau Funeral Home, 541720 US-1, Callahan, 904-879-1770.
