

PRAISE GOD

Anyway

Acts 16

Acts 16:16-18

Once when we were going to the place of prayer, we were met by a female slave who had a spirit by which she predicted the future. She earned a great deal of money for her owners by fortune-telling.

She followed Paul and the rest of us, shouting,
“These men are servants
of the Most High God,
who are telling you the way to be saved.”

She kept this up for many days.

Finally Paul became so annoyed that he turned around and said to the spirit, “In the name of Jesus Christ I command you to come out of her!” At that moment the spirit left her.

Acts 16:19-24

When her owners realized that their hope of making money was gone, they seized Paul and Silas and dragged them into the marketplace to face the authorities.

They brought them
before the magistrates
and said, “These men are Jews, and throwing our city into an uproar by advocating customs unlawful for us Romans
to accept or practice.”

The crowd joined in the attack against Paul and Silas, and the magistrates ordered them to be stripped and beaten with rods. After they had been severely flogged, they were thrown into prison, and the jailer was commanded to guard them carefully.

When he received these orders, he put them in the inner cell
and fastened their feet in the stocks.

Acts 16:25

About midnight Paul and Silas were praying and singing hymns to God, and the other prisoners were listening to them.

Matthew 12:34

Out of the abundance of the heart, the mouth speaks.

Acts 16:26-36

Suddenly there was such a violent earthquake that the foundations of the prison were shaken. At once all the prison doors flew open, and everyone's chains came loose.

The jailer woke up, and when he saw the prison doors open, he drew his sword and was about to kill himself because he thought the prisoners escaped. But Paul shouted, “Don’t harm yourself! We’re all here!”

The jailer called for lights, rushed in and fell trembling before Paul and Silas. He then brought them out and asked, “Sirs, what must I do to be saved?”

They replied, “Believe in the Lord Jesus, and you will be saved- you and your household.” Then they spoke the word of the Lord to him and to all the others in his house.

At that hour of the night the jailer took them and washed their wounds; then immediately he and all his household were baptized.

The jailer brought them into his house and set a meal before them; he was filled with joy because he had come to believe in God- he and his whole household.

When it was daylight, the magistrates sent their officers to the jailer with the order:
“Release those men.”

The jailer told Paul, “The magistrates have ordered that you and Silas be released. Now you can leave. Go in peace.”

2. Praise Changes Everything

Praise shifts our perspective and our focus.

The mountains melt like wax in the presence of the Lord.

Praise acts as a weapon
in spiritual warfare.

Psalm 149:6

Let the high praises of God be in their mouth,
and a two edged sword
in their hand.

Praise invites God's presence closer.

Psalm 22:3

God inhabits the praises of His people.

Praise has a scientific and mental benefit

7 minutes of praise every day

more gamma waves and neurotransmitters in your brain

3. Praise God Anyway

Psalm 27:6

I will offer sacrifices with shouts of joy, singing and praising the Lord with music.

Psalm 116:17

I will offer to You a sacrifice of praise and call on the name of the Lord.
