

Sitting at the Feet of Jesus

Weeping on His Feet
Luke 7: 36-50

Luke 7:36-38

When one of the Pharisees invited Jesus to have dinner with him, he went to the Pharisee's house and reclined at the table. A woman in that town who had lived a sinful life learned that Jesus was eating at the Pharisee's house, so she came with an alabaster jar of perfume.

As she stood behind him at his feet weeping, she began to wet his feet with her tears. Then she wiped them with her hair, kissed them and poured perfume on them.

“It ought not to astonish you that there were two persons whose intense affection thus displayed itself. The astonishment should be that there were not two hundred who did so- anointing the feet of an honored friend.... Loving Jesus as he deserved to be.”

- Charles Sturgeon

Luke 7:39

When the Pharisee who had invited him saw this, he said to himself, “If this man were a prophet, he would know who is touching him and what kind of woman she is- that she is a sinner.”

Luke 7:40-42

Jesus answered him, “Simon, I have something to tell you.”

“Tell me teacher”, he said.

“Two people were owed money to a certain money lender. One owed him five hundred denarii and the other fifty. Neither of them had the money to pay him back so he forgave the debts of both. Now which will love him more?”

Luke 7:43

Simon replied, “I suppose the one who had the bigger debt forgiven.”

“You have judged correctly,” Jesus said

Luke 7:44-46

Then he turned toward the woman and said to Simone, “Do you see this woman? I came into your house. You did not give me any water for my feet, but she wet my feet with her tears and wiped them with her hair. You did not give me a kiss, but this woman from the time I entered has not stopped kissing my feet. You did not put oil on my head, but she has poured perfume on my feet.”

Psalm 51:17

You will not reject a broken and repentant heart O God.

Luke 7:47-50

“Therefore, I tell you, her many sins are forgiven- as her great love has shown. But whoever has been forgiven little loves little.”

Then Jesus said to her, “Your sins are forgiven.”

The other guests began to say among themselves, “Who is this who even forgives sins?”

Jesus says to the woman, “Your faith has saved you; go in peace.”

Psalm 34:8

Taste and see that the Lord is good; blessed is the one who takes refuge in Him.
