

Acts 13

Acts 13:2-3

While they were worshipping the Lord and fasting, the Holy Spirit said, “Set apart for me Barnabas and Saul for the work to which I have called them.” So after they had fasted and prayed, they placed their hands on them and sent them off.

Acts 13:4

The two of them were sent on their way by the Holy Spirit.

Acts 13:6-8

They traveled through the whole island until they came to Paphos. There they met a Jewish sorcerer and false prophet named Bar-Jesus, who was an attendant of the proconsul, Sergius Paulus.

The proconsul, an intelligent man, sent for Barnabas and Saul because he wanted to hear the word of God. But Elymas the sorcerer opposed them and tried to turn the proconsul from the faith.

Luke 10:19

I have given you authority over all the power of the enemy, and you can walk along the snakes and scorpions and crush them. Nothing will injure you.

Ephesians 6:10-11

Finally, be strong in the Lord and in his mighty power. Put on the full armor of God, so that you can take your stand against the devil's schemes.

2 Corinthians 10:4-5

The weapons we fight with are not the weapons of the world. On the contrary they have divine power to demolish strongholds. We demolish arguments and every pretension that sets itself up against the knowledge of God and we take captive every thought to make it obedient to Christ.

John 3:19

And this is the judgment; the light has come into the world and people loved the darkness rather than the light because their works are evil.

Acts 13:9-10

Then Saul, who was also called Paul, filled with the Holy Spirit, looked straight at Elymas and said, “You are a child of the devil and an enemy of everything that is right! You are full of all kinds of deceit and trickery. Will you never stop perverting the right ways of the Lord?”

Acts 13:11-12

“Now the hand of the Lord is against you. You are going to be blind for a time, not even able to see the light of the sun.”

Immediately mist and darkness came over him, and he groped about seeking someone to lead him by the hand. When the proconsul saw what had happened, he believed for he was amazed at the teaching about the Lord.

Matthew 10:16

Behold, I send you forth as sheep in the midst of wolves.

Therefore be wise as serpents and as harmless as doves.

Revelation 3:19

Those whom I love I rebuke and discipline. So be earnest and repent.

Philippians 4:6

Don't worry about anything, instead pray about everything.

1 Corinthians 16:14

Let all that you do be done in love.

Jeremiah 17:9

The heart is deceitful above all things and desperately sick; who can understand it?

Matthew 18:6

If anyone causes one of these little ones- those who believe in me to stumble, it would be better for them to have a large millstone hung around their neck and be drowned in the depths of the sea.
