“Mikki Zip is a force to be reckoned with... Her unique sound can be likened to the storytelling prowess of Kacey Musgraves, the gritty edge of Joan Jett, and the genre-blending creativity of Halsey.” - Music City Melodies

Mikki Zip is a dynamic singer-songwriter with roots in Syracuse, NY, and a heart firmly planted in Nashville, TN. Her sound is a captivating blend of old-school country, rock-n-roll, and modern music. Known for her high-energy performances and emotional depth, Mikki forges a powerful connection with audiences that keeps them coming back for more. Mikki moved to Nashville just before her 14th birthday and has been captivating audiences across Music City ever since with her raw talent and infectious stage presence. After earning a BFA in Performing Arts and honing her craft in LA and NYC, she returned to Nashville, ready to shake up the scene with her unique storytelling and genre-bending music. She released her debut EP, 'Somethin' To Write About,' on October 18, 2024.

“Like the (Pistol) Annies, Mikki isn’t afraid to embrace themes of defiance and trouble with a fierce confidence. Her smoky, emotion-filled voice carries the weight solo, creating a sonic experience as revolutionary as it is relatable.” - Nashville
