Whether you're looking for interim development expertise, strategic guidance for smarter annual budgeting and event/campaign planning, or board/donor cultivation, engagement, and retention wisdom, I offer the real world skills and a visionary approach to help you identify, set, and reach your goals.

Let's talk!

Heather

We've just emerged from an unprecedented 2-year monkey wrench in development and fundraising.

What have we learned?

When you're in survival mode, your greatest strengths and vulnerabilities are revealed.

Unnecessary, resource-draining and unproductive things can be reconsidered, and new perspectives/gifts culled to propel us forward.

Questions and challenges present perpetually, but valuing and nurturing staff, board, volunteer, and donor relationships is always central to the answer.
