BLUE BUILDING FUND ENVELOPES

We remain committed to building and maintaining a campus that reflects the many blessings God has bestowed upon us. To support these efforts, we have begun an initiative to strengthen our parish building fund. You will notice that the general green envelopes have been replaced with BLUE BUILDING FUND envelopes. They will also be added to the rotation of envelopes that are mailed to you. Contributions made through these envelopes will be designated specifically for parish improvements and maintenance, helping us continue both current and future projects.

We also thank all those who contributed to this week's flower fund! Donations can be made directly to the parish. Please make sure to indicate it's for the flower fund.

DID YOU KNOW?

Mandated and ethical reporting
Mandated reporters are persons who are legally required to report suspected cases of abuse, or instances where a child has disclosed abuse. These reports must be made to child protective services or law enforcement officials. Most professions that make a person a mandated reporter involve close interactions with children, like a teacher, school administrator or nurse. But regardless of the law, we all have an ethical obligation to report suspected or known child abuse, in order to keep children safe. For more information, read the VIRTUS® article "The Facts about Mandated and Ethical Reporting" at lacatholics.org/did-you-know.

¿SABÍA USTED?

Notificación obligatoria y ética
Reporteros obligatorios o "mandated reporters" son personas con obligación legal de denunciar los casos sospechosos de maltrato o aquellas situaciones en las que un menor haya revelado haber sufrido maltrato o abuso. Estas denuncias se deben presentar ante los servicios de protección de la infancia o ante las autoridades policiales. La mayoría de las profesiones que obligan a una persona a informar de los casos de maltrato involucran una interacción estrecha con los niños, como la de maestro, administrador escolar o enfermero. Pero, independientemente de lo que diga la ley, todos tenemos la obligación ética de denunciar los casos de maltrato infantil, ya sean sospechosos o confirmados, con el fin de garantizar la seguridad de los niños. Para más información lea el artículo de VIRTUS® "Datos sobre los reporteros y notificación obligatoria y ética" (The Facts about Mandated and Ethical Reporting) at lacatholics.org/did-you-know.

In the Gospel today, we hear that the poor and suffering are especially blessed. As Blessed Frédéric Ozanam said, "the blessing of the poor is the blessing of God.

As you place your gift in the Society of St. Vincent de Paul Poor Box, please pray for the blessing of the poor.

Dear St. Pancratius Family,

It seems that time is moving faster than ever. Before we know it, we will be celebrating the Solemnity of Christ the King, bringing another liturgical year to a close, and preparing our hearts for Advent and Christmas. But before we rush into the next season, I invite you to pause and embrace these sacred days of Hallowtide.

Hallowtide consists of three days: All Hallows' Eve, commonly known as Halloween; All Saints' Day; and All Souls' Day. These days invite us to look beyond the busyness of our daily lives and reflect on something we do not often want to think about: death, eternity, and the hope we have in Jesus Christ.

On All Saints' Day, we celebrate those who have gone before us and now share in the glory of God. On All Souls' Day, we remember and pray for our beloved dead, entrusting them to the mercy and love of God. These celebrations remind us that our faith is not simply about how we live today, but also about the eternal life for which we were created.

As Catholics, we believe that death does not have the final word. Jesus Christ does. His Resurrection is the foundation of our hope and the promise that, through Him, death is not the end. Yet, how often do we allow ourselves to become so consumed by the demands of life that we forget where we are ultimately headed? Perhaps these days offer us an opportunity to slow down. Pray for a loved one who has died. Visit a cemetery. Light a candle. Attend Mass. Take a moment to remember those whose faith, love, and sacrifices helped shape your own. And just as importantly, ask yourself: Am I living my life in a way that prepares me to meet the Lord?

We spend so much of our lives preparing for what comes next: the next holiday, the next responsibility, the next milestone. But how much time do we spend preparing for eternity? Hallowtide reminds us that our time on earth is a gift, our call to holiness is real, and our ultimate home is with God.

So, before we rush toward Advent and Christmas, let us embrace these sacred days. Let us remember the saints who show us the way, pray for the faithful departed who have gone before us, and renew our desire to become saints ourselves.

May the witness of the saints inspire us, may the souls of the faithful departed rest in peace, and may we never lose sight of the eternal joy that Christ has promised to those who remain faithful to Him.

In Christ,

Father Andrew

Estimada familia de San Pancracio:

Parece que el tiempo pasa más rápido que nunca. Muy pronto estaremos celebrando la Solemnidad de Cristo Rey, cerrando así otro año litúrgico y preparando nuestros corazones para el Adviento y la Navidad. Pero, antes de precipitarnos hacia el siguiente tiempo litúrgico, les invito a hacer una pausa y acoger estos días sagrados que conforman el "triduo" de Todos los Santos y los Fieles Difuntos.

Este periodo comprende tres días: la víspera de Todos los Santos, la Solemnidad de Todos los Santos y la Conmemoración de los Fieles Difuntos. Estos días nos invitan a mirar más allá del ajetreo de nuestra vida cotidiana y a reflexionar sobre algo en lo que, a menudo, no queremos pensar: la muerte, la eternidad y la esperanza que tenemos en Jesucristo.

En la Solemnidad de Todos los Santos, celebramos a aquellos que nos han precedido y que ahora participan de la gloria de Dios. En la Conmemoración de los Fieles Difuntos, recordamos a nuestros seres queridos que han fallecido y rezamos por ellos, encomendándolos a la misericordia y al amor de Dios. Estas celebraciones nos recuerdan que nuestra fe no se limita solo a cómo vivimos hoy, sino que también abarca la vida eterna para la cual fuimos creados.

Como católicos, creemos que la muerte no tiene la última palabra; la tiene Jesucristo. Su Resurrección es el fundamento de nuestra esperanza y la promesa de que, a través de Él, la muerte no es el final. Sin embargo, ¿con qué frecuencia permitimos que las exigencias de la vida nos absorban tanto que olvidamos hacia dónde nos dirigimos?

Quizás estos días nos ofrezcan la oportunidad de bajar el ritmo. Recen por un ser querido que ha fallecido. Visiten un cementerio. Enciendan una vela. Asistan a Misa. Tómense un momento para recordar a aquellas personas cuya fe, amor y sacrificios ayudaron a forjar la suya propia. Y, algo igual de importante, pregúntense: ¿estoy viviendo mi vida de tal manera que me prepare para el encuentro con el Señor?

Pasamos gran parte de nuestra vida preparándonos para lo que viene: las próximas vacaciones, la siguiente responsabilidad, la próxima meta. Pero, ¿cuánto tiempo dedicamos a prepararnos para la eternidad? Este tiempo nos recuerda que nuestro paso por la tierra es un regalo, que nuestra llamada a la santidad es real y que nuestro verdadero hogar está junto a Dios. Así pues, antes de adentrarnos de lleno en el Adviento y la Navidad, acojamos estos días sagrados. Recordemos a los santos que nos muestran el camino, oremos por los fieles difuntos que nos han precedido y renovemos nuestro deseo de llegar a ser santos nosotros mismos.

Que el testimonio de los santos nos inspire, que las almas de los fieles difuntos descansen en paz y que nunca perdamos de vista la alegría eterna que Cristo ha prometido a quienes permanecen fieles a Él.

En Cristo,

Padre Andres

AN ELECTION PRAYER TO MARY

O Most Blessed Virgin Mary, Mother of Mercy, at this most critical time, we entrust the United States of America to your loving care.

Most Holy Mother, we beg you to reclaim this land for the glory of your Son.

Overwhelmed with the burden of sins of our nation, we cry to you from the depths of our hearts and seek refuge in your motherly protection.

Look down with mercy upon us and touch the hearts of our people. Open our minds to the great worth of human life and to the responsibilities that accompany human freedom.

Free us from the falsehoods that lead to the evil of abortion and threated the sanctity of family life. Grant our country the wisdom to proclaim that God's law is the foundation on which this nation was founded, and that He alone is the True Source of our cherished rights to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness.

O Merciful Mother, give us the courage to reject the culture of death and the strength to build a new Culture of Life. Amen.

ST. PANCRATIUS ELEMENTARY SCHOOL NONDISCRIMINATION POLICY 2026-2027 SCHOOL STUDENT NON-DISCRIMINATION POLICY

The school, mindful of its mission to be a witness to the love of Christ for all, admits students regardless of race, color, national origin, and/or ethnic origin to all rights, privileges, programs, and activities generally accorded or made available to students at the school.

The school does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, disability, medical condition, sex, or national and/or ethnic origin in the administration of educational policies and practices, scholarship programs, and athletic and other school-administered programs, although certain athletic leagues and other programs may limit participation and some archdiocesan schools operate as single-sex schools.

While the school does not discriminate against students with special needs, a full range of services may not always be available to them. Decisions concerning the admission and continued enrollment of a student in the school are based upon the student's emotional, academic, and physical abilities and the resources available to the school in meeting the student's needs.

[Note that this School Student Non-Discrimination Policy does not provide nor imply that the archdiocese waives any legal exceptions or exemptions that may apply to it as a religious nonprofit organization.]

This Catholic Elementary School publishes the above policy in the staff and parent/student handbooks, public relations/recruitment brochures and in other publications such as the parish bulletin and school newspaper. The school also publishes applicable grievance procedures in the staff and parent/student handbooks.
