Explaining sexual abuse to school-aged children

School-aged children should be taught about the dangers of sexual abuse, and the signs of risky situations that could lead to potential abuse. Sexual abuse and exploitation does not only happen through in-person touch; it can happen online or through the phone as well. For this reason, it's important that children know what is and is not okay for adults and others to do. Risky situations can include being asked to send photos, or being contacted by someone you don't know online. For more information, read the VIRTUS® article "Sharing Developmental, Age-Appropriate Information with Children" at <https://lacatholics.org/did-you-know/>.

Cómo explicar el abuso sexual a los niños en edad escolar

Hay que enseñar a los niños en edad escolar los peligros del abuso sexual y las señales de situaciones de riesgo que podrían conducir a un posible abuso. El abuso y la explotación sexuales no sólo se producen mediante el contacto en persona; también pueden ocurrir por el internet o por teléfono. Es importante que los niños conozcan los comportamientos adecuados e inadecuados de los adultos. Las situaciones de riesgo pueden incluir pedir a un niño que le envía fotos o que alguien desconocido se ponga en contacto por el internet. Para más información sobre las normas de seguridad para niños pequeños, lea el artículo de VIRTUS® "Compartir con los niños información adecuada para su desarrollo y edad" en <https://lacatholics.org/did-you-know/>.

Today we celebrate the gift of the Body and Blood of Christ we hear Jesus ask his disciples, "Why do you not give them something to eat yourselves?" And he shows them how by the multiplication of the five loaves and two fishes.

Today, as you donate to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul know that the multiplication of the loaves and fishes will happen again and the hungry will be fed.

Dear St. Pancratius Family,

This weekend we celebrate the Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ—Corpus Christi—a feast that invites us to pause and marvel at the mystery at the heart of our Catholic faith: the Real Presence of Jesus Christ in the Holy Eucharist.

At every Mass, we witness something astonishing. Simple bread and wine, through the words of Jesus and the power of the Holy Spirit, become His Body and Blood. Not a symbol, not a reminder—but Christ Himself, offered to us as food for our journey. This is not a passive ritual; it is an encounter with the living God who gives Himself entirely to us, that we might become what we receive.

The Eucharist is communion—with Christ and with one another. It is also mission. Having been fed by the Lord, we are sent out to be His Body in the world: to love more generously, to forgive more freely, and to serve with greater humility.

On this solemn day, may we renew our reverence for the Blessed Sacrament, deepen our hunger for the Bread of Life, and recognize the grace we receive at every altar. Let us come to the altar not out of habit, but with grateful hearts that say with faith, "Lord, I am not worthy... but only say the word."

Let our lives become a living Eucharist—thanksgiving poured out for others.

In Christ,

Father Andrew

Querida Familia de San Pancracio,

Este fin de semana celebramos la Solemnidad del Santísimo Cuerpo y Sangre de Cristo (Corpus Christi), una fiesta que nos invita a detenernos y maravillarnos ante el misterio central de nuestra fe católica: la Presencia Real de Jesucristo en la Sagrada Eucaristía.

En cada misa, presenciamos algo asombroso. El simple pan y el vino, mediante las palabras de Jesús y el poder del Espíritu Santo, se convierten en su Cuerpo y su Sangre. No es un símbolo ni un recordatorio, sino Cristo mismo, ofrecido como alimento para nuestra jornada. No es un ritual pasivo; es un encuentro con el Dios vivo que se entrega por completo a nosotros para que podamos convertirnos en lo que recibimos.

La Eucaristía es comunión—con Cristo y entre nosotros. También es misión. Habiendo sido alimentados por el Señor, somos enviados a ser su Cuerpo en el mundo: a amar con mayor generosidad, a perdonar con mayor libertad y a servir con mayor humildad.

En este día solemne, renovemos nuestra reverencia al Santísimo Sacramento, profundicemos nuestro anhelo por el Pan de Vida y reconozcamos la gracia que recibimos en cada altar. Acerquémonos al altar no por costumbre, sino con un corazón agradecido que diga con fe: "Señor, no soy digno...pero una palabra tuya".

Que nuestras vidas se conviertan en una Eucaristía viva: en acción de gracias derramada por los demás.

En Cristo,

Padre Andrew

Jesus Christ revealed to St. Margaret Mary Alacoque the "Nine First Fridays" devotion to the Most Sacred Heart of Jesus. This involves the practice of receiving Holy Communion on nine consecutive First Fridays of the month in reparation to "the heart that has loved men so and is loved so little in return. (Christ own words to St. Margaret Mary).

The reparation consists of:

1. Receiving Holy Communion on each First Friday of the month.
2. Completing the Nine First Fridays in nine consecutive months.
3. Making the Nine First Fridays in honor of and in reparation to Our Lord's Most Sacred Heart for all the blasphemies, outrages, sacrileges and indifferences committed against it.

Our Lady of Fatima requested the practice of making reparation for sins of blasphemy and ingratitude against her Immaculate Heart on the First Saturday of five consecutive months.

This reparation consists of:

1. Confession (20 days before or after)
2. Receive Holy Communion.
3. Recite five decades of the Rosary.
4. Keep the Blessed Mother company meditating for a quarter of an hour on the fifteen mysteries of the Rosary.
