BLUE BUILDING FUND ENVELOPES

We remain committed to building and maintaining a campus that reflects the many blessings God has bestowed upon us. To support these efforts, we have begun an initiative to strengthen our parish building fund. You will notice that the general green envelopes have been replaced with BLUE BUILDING FUND envelopes. They will also be added to the rotation of envelopes that are mailed to you. Contributions made through these envelopes will be designated specifically for parish improvements and maintenance, helping us continue both current and future projects.

We also thank all those who contributed to this week's flower fund! Donations can be made directly to the parish. Please make sure to indicate it's for the flower fund.

DID YOU KNOW?

What is online exploitation?
Online exploitation is the use of the internet or digital technology to sexually exploit children or vulnerable adults. While this can happen in many ways, the most common examples include grooming, coercing a victim into sharing explicit images, or building up to meeting in person. Predators use social media, gaming platforms, livestreams, and even online communities to identify and isolate victims. Online exploitation against a minor is always a form of child abuse, even if nothing physical occurs. For more information, read the VIRTUS® article "Online Exploitation: What is it and what can we do?" at lacatholics.org/did-you-know.

¿SABÍA USTED?

¿Qué es la explotación en línea?
La explotación en línea consiste en el uso de Internet o de la tecnología digital para explotar sexualmente a menores o a adultos vulnerables. Aunque esto puede ocurrir de muchas formas, entre los ejemplos más habituales se encuentran el "grooming", coaccionar a la víctima para que comparta imágenes explícitas, o preparación para contacto presencial. Los depredadores utilizan las redes sociales, las plataformas de videojuegos, las transmisiones en directo e incluso las comunidades en línea para identificar y aislar a sus víctimas. La explotación en línea de un menor siempre constituye una forma de maltrato infantil, aunque no se produzca ningún tipo de agresión física. Para más información lea el artículo de VIRTUS® "La explotación en línea: ¿qué es y qué podemos hacer al respecto?" In today's Gospel Jesus challenges us to "stay awake" by taking time to seriously look at ourselves, the priorities of our lives, and how we are growing spiritually.

Ask yourself "What would Jesus Christ do?" and then put your gift in the Society of St. Vincent de Paul poor box so that those who are suffering will be able to celebrate Thanksgiving.

SOCIETY of ST. VINCENT de PAUL LOS ANGELES

Dear St. Pancratius Family,

This past week, the Church in the United States celebrated National Vocation Awareness Week — a time set aside to pray for and promote vocations to the priesthood, permanent diaconate, and consecrated life. As we close out that week this weekend, the timing could not be more fitting. A vocation is a personal invitation from God — a call to give your whole self in a specific way of life as a path to holiness. The Church asks all the faithful to pray earnestly for more holy priests, deacons, and consecrated men and women, and to encourage those who may be hearing that quiet but persistent whisper from God.

Later this week, the nation pauses to honor its veterans — men and women who answered a call that asked them to place their lives between their families and the cost of war. They left home and comfort behind, endured hardship and sacrifice, so that others might live in freedom. Many never came home. Those who did carry burdens invisible to the eye. To every veteran in this parish: thank you. Your willingness to lay down your life for another is among the most sacred acts a human being can offer.
That is exactly what makes this weekend so striking. The soldier who raises a right hand and the seminarian who kneels before a bishop are making the same fundamental act — a surrender of the self in answer to a call.

Which brings us to today's Gospel. Ten virgins knew the bridegroom was coming. Five kept their lamps burning. Five did not. The difference was not knowledge — it was readiness. The veteran answered the call. The priest answered the call. The deacon answered the call. The sister answered the call.

As we move into this week, carry three things forward: continued prayer for those discerning a vocation; sincere gratitude for our veterans; and an open heart, ready to hear whatever God is asking of you.

In Christ,

Father Miguel

Estimada familia de San Pancracio:

La semana pasada, la Iglesia en los Estados Unidos celebró la Semana Nacional de Concientización sobre las Vocaciones: un tiempo dedicado a orar y promover por las vocaciones al sacerdocio, al diaconado permanente y a la vida consagrada. Una vocación es una invitación personal de Dios; un llamado a entregarse por completo a un modo de vida específico como camino hacia la santidad. La Iglesia pide a todos los fieles que oren con fervor por más sacerdotes, diáconos y personas consagradas —hombres y mujeres— que sean santos, y que alienten a quienes quizás estén escuchando ese susurro, suave pero persistente, proveniente de Dios.

Esta semana, la nación se detendrá para honrar a sus veteranos: hombres y mujeres que respondieron a un llamado que les pedía interponer sus propias vidas entre sus familias y los estragos de la guerra. Dejaron atrás su hogar y su comodidad, soportaron privaciones y sacrificios para que otros pudieran vivir en libertad. Muchos nunca regresaron a casa. Aquellos que sí lo hicieron, cargan con pesos invisibles a los ojos. A cada veterano en esta parroquia: gracias. Su disposición a entregar la vida por los demás constituye uno de los actos más sagrados que un ser humano puede ofrecer.

Eso es precisamente lo que hace que este fin de semana sea tan significativo. El soldado que levanta su mano derecha y el seminarista que se arrodilla ante un obispo realizan el mismo acto fundamental: la entrega de sí mismos en respuesta a un llamado.

Esto nos lleva al Evangelio de hoy. Diez vírgenes sabían que el novio venía. Cinco mantuvieron sus lámparas encendidas; las otras cinco, no. La diferencia no radicaba en el conocimiento, sino en la preparación. El veterano respondió al llamado. El sacerdote respondió al llamado. El diácono respondió al llamado. La religiosa respondió al llamado.

Al comenzar esta nueva semana, tengan presentes tres cosas: la oración constante por quienes están discerniendo una vocación; una gratitud sincera hacia nuestros veteranos; y un corazón abierto, dispuesto a escuchar cualquier cosa que Dios les pida.

En Cristo,

Padre Miguel
