Stand Up Sunday recognizes those who have completed VIRTUS® Training

This weekend, in solidarity with those who have been harmed, and as a visible demonstration of our ongoing commitment to the prevention of child sexual abuse, parishes throughout the Archdiocese of Los Angeles are offering Masses and prayers in support of the World Day for the Prevention of and Healing from Child Exploitation, Abuse and Violence. We would like to recognize and give thanks for all in our parish communities who have completed the VIRTUS® Sexual Abuse Prevention Training and requisite background checks and fingerprinting, now standard for those working or volunteering in the church. Each of you is a blessing to our parishes and greater communities and is a living representation of the Church's efforts to protect the most vulnerable among us. ¿SABÍA USTED?

Stand Up Sunday reconoce todos los que han completado la formación de VIRTUS

Este fin de semana, en solidaridad con los que han sido perjudicados, y como una demostración visible de nuestro compromiso continuo a la prevención del abuso sexual de menores, las parroquias de toda la Arquidiócesis de Los Ángeles están ofreciendo Misas y oraciones en apoyo de el Día Mundial para la Prevención y la Sanación de la Explotación, el Abuso y la Violencia contra los Niños. Nos gustaría reconocer y dar las gracias a todos los miembros de nuestras comunidades parroquiales que han completado la formación VIRTUS® para la prevención de abuso sexual, así como el requisito de verificación de antecedentes y huellas digitales, ahora estándar para todos los que trabajan o son voluntarios en la iglesia. Cada uno de ustedes es una bendición para nuestras parroquias y comunidades y una representación viva de los esfuerzos de la Iglesia de proteger a los más vulnerables entre nosotros. The good news of today's Gospel is the extravagance of what is being given us. All we need do is be faithful in "small matters." The cost of fidelity has no comparison to the reward given.

When you give the furniture, household items and clothing you no longer use to the Society of St. Vincent de Paul, you are sharing God's extravagant love.

SOCIETY of ST. VINCENT de PAUL LOS ANGELES

Dear St. Pancratius Family,

The liturgical year is almost over and the Church has arranged its final days with remarkable wisdom.

Next Sunday, November 22, we celebrate the Solemnity of Christ the King. The following Sunday, November 29, Advent begins. In just two weeks, the year ends and a new one opens. The Church does this on purpose: history closes with Christ reigning, and only then do we begin waiting for Him again.

The midterm elections have stirred strong feelings across our nation — relief for some, disappointment for others, and exhaustion for many. Catholics are right to care deeply about elections. Policy touches real lives: the unborn, the poor, the family, the economy, and the common good. Civic engagement is not optional for a people formed by the Gospel.

But here is the word the liturgy itself speaks this week: no election result changes who is ultimately sovereign.

The Gospel for Christ the King Sunday is Matthew 25:31–46 — the King who judges the nations not by their politics, but by whether they fed the hungry, welcomed the stranger, and visited the sick. That standard outlasts every administration.

Before Advent arrives, consider one concrete step: go to Confession. Set out the Advent wreath. And ask honestly — has politics become a source of ultimate hope or ultimate fear in your heart? The liturgy is asking that question of all of us right now.

This parish belongs to people of every political view. That unity is not despite the Gospel — it is the Gospel.

Come to Mass next Sunday. Bring your anxiety, your relief, your frustration — and lay it at the feet of the only King who can do something eternal with it.

In Christ,

Father Andrew

Estimada familia de San Pancracio:

El año litúrgico está por terminar y la Iglesia ha dispuesto sus últimos días con una sabiduría admirable.

El próximo domingo, 22 de noviembre, celebramos la solemnidad de Cristo Rey. El domingo siguiente, 29 de noviembre, comienza el Adviento. En solo dos semanas, el año concluye y comienza uno nuevo. La Iglesia lo hace a propósito: la historia culmina con Cristo reinando, y solo entonces comenzamos a esperarlo de nuevo.

Las elecciones de mitad de mandato han suscitado sentimientos intensos en toda nuestra nación: alivio para algunos, decepción para otros y agotamiento para muchos. Los católicos hacen bien en interesarse profundamente por las elecciones. Las políticas públicas afectan vidas reales: las de los no nacidos, los pobres, la familia, la economía y el bien común. La participación cívica no es opcional para un pueblo formado por el Evangelio.

Pero he aquí el mensaje que la propia liturgia nos ofrece esta semana: ningún resultado electoral cambia quién es, en última instancia, el soberano.

El Evangelio para el domingo de Cristo Rey es Mateo 25, 31-46: el Rey que juzga a las naciones no por su política, sino por si dieron de comer al hambriento, acogieron al forastero y visitaron al enfermo. Ese criterio trasciende a cualquier administración.

Antes de que llegue el Adviento, considere un paso concreto: acuda a la confesión. Prepare la corona de Adviento. Y pregúntese con sinceridad: ¿se ha convertido la política en una fuente de esperanza o de temor en su corazón? La liturgia nos plantea esta pregunta a todos nosotros en este momento.

Esta parroquia acoge a personas de toda tendencia política. Esa unidad no existe a pesar del Evangelio; es, en realidad, el Evangelio mismo.

Venga a Misa el próximo domingo. Traiga su inquietud, su alivio, su frustración, y deposítelos a los pies del único Rey capaz de hacer algo eterno con todo ello.

En Cristo,

Padre Andres
