

Regarding the Facebook Account of AnnaMae B Ezee

The South Florida Sisters of Perpetual Indulgence is aware that the Facebook page of Sister AnnaMae B Ezee contains posts that are not in line with the ideals and standards of the South Florida Sisters of Perpetual Indulgence. Furthermore, these posts undermine and harm our mission to encourage self-expression and diversity, engender acceptance, and foster tolerance.

Sister AnnaMae has been approached by many members and she has informed us that the account has been hacked.

We, the South Florida Sisters, have taken action with this information. This account has been removed from our internal chats, blocked from our page, and we await Sister AnnaMae to either regain control of her account and clean it or to make a new one and point people to it via comments on her old page. Until then, we advise the community and any of her friends to treat the page as if it has been hacked and is now a bot account.

Sincerely,

The South Florida Sisters of Perpetual Indulgence
