

© 2019 Cindy Jackson

Jehovah Rapha, my healer. I pray to You. Raise me up, let me fly into your everlasting arms and be at peace once again. It says in Your Word... and the word became flesh and dwelt among us! You walked on this earth and healed many from their diseases and then died and rose again so we may be delivered from all our sins. By Your stripes I am healed forevermore... Amen!