

Looking up or looking down, You are still worthy of praise! Only thru You God can I ever hope to make a difference in a life, especially for someone undeserving like a family member or an enemy. Your ways are higher and greater than my ways and Your thoughts are of love and not of self gain or strife. You died for us while we were all sinners. Please help me to love as you did so I can be like YOU!