

© 2019 Cindy Jackson

Jesus, You are my strong tower. I receive all that You have in store for me! You mean everything to me. I need You more now than ever before! I seek You with my whole heart. I am thankful that You are my solid rock in which I can stand on today and everyday through every trial and tribulation. In You I also hide, especially when I'm tired, then I am safe because I am surrounded by Your fortress of love.