

© 2019 Cindy Jackson

Dear Jesus, You allow my trials and You say to count them as all joy when I encounter them. No matter what, I choose to follow You and declare that my hope is in You. I may fall down, I may mess up but You love me just the same. You bring great beauty out of the ashes of my life. You are a big God and the same no matter what season of life I find myself in. I Praise Your Holy Name!