SUE'S CORNER

Have you seen the episode of Antique's Road Show where the Navajo blanket was appraised for $300,000 to $500,000 and ended up selling for $1.5 million? The man who owned it had no way of knowing that the textile he was bringing to the Roadshow was actually a Navajo Ute First Phase chief's blanket dating back to the 1800s. It was given to him by his grandmother who received it from a frontiersman she grew up with. How often have we had something and had no idea its value? Years ago I gave a Black Diamond edition video tape of Beauty and the Beast to a friend who could not find one for her daughter. It is now worth as much as $10,000! The same thing can apply to our relations with family and friends which are more priceless than any blanket, jewel or any other material thing.

I feel that same way about my family and friends including those I have made at HHAC. I think of the people I have had opportunity to laugh, cry and even pray with. Those moments are priceless. Even today, after our Tuesday Goodie BINGO, I took time to visit with several ladies. We talked of current events in Uvalde, our families, our hurts and shared real laughter. I don't do that enough. I find myself putting this position before friendships that are waiting to be nurtured or opportunities that may be within arms reach. Those moments where we connect with one another are priceless. Moments such as when my new friend Sheree walked into my office just this week and on our first visit we talked as if we have known each other all our lives. We shared about our love for God, our feel on current Uvalde events, how hard it is to be a "newbie" and so much more. A friendship was formed that I hope will be nurtured and valued just as the friendship I have with others in Uvalde and beyond. Friendship with my Bible study/prayer ladies that are so precious to me, those who volunteer helping with the task of running HHAC and of course my family, there cannot be a price attached.

HHAC is also valued by so many. There have been amazing relationships formed, things learned, experienced and lives changed. Please know how priceless this Center is. I encourage you to examine what you have right before your eyes and be a part of what we offer.

Thank you to all who love and support us. We are here and we will remain.

BOARD SPOTLIGHT-GABE GONZALES

Uvalde born and raised, Gabe Gonzales has grown up with a sense of hometown pride especially where Uvalde football is concerned. Attending Uvalde High and graduating in 2002, Gabe speaks of how area football brought such pride to the area and still does.

After attending high school he spent 4 years in the Marines where he was sent to Okinawa, the Philippines, "Everywhere but Iraq" Gabe said. I felt that something may have happened if I went to Afghanistan. God was protecting me and allowed me to stay out of the war zone. Every time I was supposed to go I was sent somewhere else. Crazy!"

Even though Gabe and his wife Jennifer grew up in Uvalde they did not really meet until later on the social media site My Space when Jennifer was in college. "Our first date was at Applebee's in San Marcos." After getting out of the military he was planning on attending college but plans changed and he followed Jennifer back to Uvalde.

He and Jennifer, who is an educational diagnostician, have two children 10 and 14. His son plays football, which Gabe coaches and his daughter is in color guard where she also participates in competitions.

Gabe attended SWTJC and Sul Ross University where he obtained his teaching degree and now teaches 5th grade math at Flores Elementary. He has recently obtained his degree in digital marketing from UT.

His passion is music where he manages the popular band Eztilo who perform all over South Texas. They are hoping to perform here at HHAC in November.

In sharing about growing up in Uvalde, Gabe spoke of the division between Hispanics and Anglos. "Uvalde has improved from when I was younger but we have a way to go. If we would experience how each other lives, we would be a lot better off. We need to learn to tolerate our differences and not be afraid. Otherwise it is going to remain the same. I am doing what I can to help change that mindset."

Gabe is proudly HHAC'S first Hispanic male board member. He was introduced to us by Jennifer's grandmother, Cora Ann Fowler. Serving on our board for 4 years, Gabe is able to bring a different spin to how we operate.

Gabe spoke of what an asset HHAC is to Uvalde but we need to get out of our comfort zone. "We need younger people here to participate and volunteer and to bring new ideas. People from all ages really need to come see what we have to offer and how great HHAC can be."

Thank you Gabe for serving and for what you offer to HHAC!
