SUE'S CORNER

Uvalde Strong....what does it mean?

The definition of STRONG is "able to withstand great force or pressure."

Many told me after my first husband died "Sue, you are so strong" even though I felt like my world was falling apart. I often thought "If they only knew". But you know what...I survived. Now 14 years later, remarried and living in Uvalde, I never thought I would see my life as it is today. Do we still miss Dan? Absolutely, but healing has taken place.

Looking back I realized how strong I was. I remember one day I fixed my fence, the ac on my car and my dryer. In time, I got my finances in order like never before and worked at a job where I led my team to often become number one in the nation in sales. Looking back can be good. It gives a sense of accomplishment, but it is done some time later.

I pray that Uvalde experiences the same thing... that one day we can look back and see the good that has been done in the midst of tragedy, share the things we have learned and realize how really strong we have become.

I pray one day this community will be able to reach out as others have to us, offering help in the occurrence of disaster. For instance on May 25th I received a call from my new friend, Rabbi Ron with the Jewish Community Center in Pittsburg. Being a similar organization, he reached out to us offering what help he could including toys and books for our community. Their event happened in 2018. He shared with me what they have learned, what has changed and what they hope to see in their future. Their community came together, but it took time.

I pray for healing for our community...for the families and friends who have lost a part of their heart, for even our environment and how we pictured our future prior to these events.

Becoming strong happens, as the definition states, through withstanding great force and pressure. It does not happen overnight. It is not a one-stop-shop and it is nothing magical. It is a process. Let's accept it, come together and help one another reach that goal.

Grace and peace to you all.

BOARD SPOTLIGHT-CHERYL KING

Running all over town doing work for her husband, State Representative Tracy King, rental properties, her family and any group or activity she is involved in, Cheryl King is clearly a doer. Cheryl was born and raised in Hondo, TX. Her father who was from Devine, her mom from Quihi and a younger sister who lives in D'Hanis, she is truly a Texas girl. She loved growing up in a small town and made lifelong friends. In a graduating class of 100 Cheryl is still best friends with 3 classmates who get together all the time. Cheryl continues to organize class reunions every 3-4 years for her high school.

Asking what she loved best about growing up in Hondo Cheryl said "the football games". "The whole town would close down when we had games. Everybody went to them."

A friend invited Cheryl to a dance at The Purple Sage where a new, up-and-coming singer was playing. There for the first time she heard George Strait. Since then she has been to over 30 concerts.

The evening at The Purple Sage continued to be even more eventful. That is when she met Tracy. Running into him 3 times after the first evening they officially had their first date where, of course, they went dancing and to dinner.

Tracy, who at 28 at the time, and was already involved in politics, asked Cheryl to marry him stating they had to set the date between elections. And so it began.... "I cant tell you how many fundraisers and political events I have attended." She has had the opportunity to meet many very important people including George W Bush. "He is a very personable man who remembers your name even years after meeting you."

Having 2 children; Clayton, their son's goal is to play professional golf and often practices next to George Strait. "He calls letting me know when they are on the coarse at the same time to rub it in". Their daughter, Katelyn, will be receiving her DVM this December.

Tracy and Cheryl were the original owners of Beltone Hearing Centers here in Uvalde selling it in 2010. When Cheryl is not helping her husband or meeting with her group of Legislative ladies in Austin she manages her properties in and around Uvalde.

Invited to water aerobics by her long-time friend Brenda Carter, Cheryl has now been a part of HHAC, including serving on our board, for almost 2 years. She, along with everyone else when asked, said she loves the friendships she has made. "I have gotten to really know people I would not have if not participating in water aerobics." When asking about how we can improve she said, "More people need to know about HHAC. So many I speak with have no idea we are here." We agree!

Thank you, Cheryl for all you do for Uvalde and HHAC.

Everyone, please help us spread the word about HHAC and all we offer. Share this newsletter with a friend or if you drop by the office we can give a printed version to share.
