Makeup artist

Dark & Dusky

: Skin tone.

"Girls with Dark or dusky skin tone are being degraded because of their complexion in society. They often get discriminated, obstructed by the people who just have a little more fun by teasing them, by trying to destroy their inner confidence. Getting born with a Dusky complexion is a sin? Don't they have the right to feel beautiful as they are?

Beauty is not about getting fair or changing yourself by putting on makeup, It is about feeling confident, beautiful from inside, it is about what you embrace about yourself!

Makeup is a choice to enhance the beauty which you already have, is to enhance certain features to make you more confident to stand among the crowd!

Dear Girls, with Dark/ Dusky skin tone, please don't hide your originality, your skin color is your beauty, you don't have to use lighter tone foundation, don't have to look fair! Just be the way you are, that is the unique you!

Playback Singer Sharda No more

Veteran singer-composer Sharda, known for Titli Udi, dies of cancer at 86 on 14.6.23. . She was introduced to the film industry by Raj Kapoor. She was known for her legendary song Titli Udi from 1966 film Sooraj. Her songs were pictured on Vyjayanthimala, Mumtaaz, Rekha, Sharmila Tagore and Hema Malini.. She was known for her unconventional voice and sang for actress Rajshree in many of her films. Sharda's real name was Sharda Rajan Iyengar. She was born into a Tamil family. She was introduced to the film industry by Raj Kapoor, who introduced her to music directors Shankar-Jaikishan. They gave her the first break with Sooraj. Her debut song got her a Filmfare award at that time along with Mohammed Rafi. While Lata Mangeshkar and Asha Bhonsle mostly lent their voices to songs at that time, Sharda's unconventional childlike voice was a welcome change in that era. She also sang in films such as An Evening in Paris, Around The World, Gumnaam, Sapno Ka Saudagar and Kal Aaj aur Kal. Her songs were pictured.
