KIDS SHOPPING EXPERIENCE: As a part of extra curricular activities teachers of Kect Academy planned an educational visit to Hi Fy Supermarket with a group of Montessori kids. This visit was designed to be a hands-on learning experience, aimed at introducing the children to the practical aspects of shopping, understanding the value of money, and making healthy food choices. Each group took turns at the self-checkout kiosks, where they scanned their items and saw the total cost. This hands-on activity was both exciting and educational, as they learned about the exchange of money and received receipts for their parents.

Anant Bhai Ambani's Mass Wedding: A Beacon of Love and Support for India's Communities

In a series of grand pre-wedding celebrations marking the union of Anant Bhai Ambani and Radhika Merchant, one event stands out for its noble cause and heartfelt execution: the mass wedding for underprivileged couples. Following spectacular celebrations in Jamnagar, Gujarat, and an opulent international cruise in Italy, the Ambani family has once again captured national attention with this philanthropic endeavour. Initially planned to be held at Swami Vivekanand Vidyamandir in Palghar, the mass wedding ceremony was relocated and took place today at the Reliance Corporate Park in Thane. The event highlighted the Ambani family's dedication to providing an unforgettable experience for the happy couples by enabling them to celebrate their union in grandeur, a luxury that would have been beyond their means. The mass wedding marked the beginning of the wedding festivities for Anant Ambani and Radhika Merchant. It brought together over 50 underprivileged couples from the Palghar area, located about 100 kilometers from Mumbai. The ceremony was attended by nearly 800 people, including family members of the couples, local social workers, and community members. This initiative is a testament to the Ambani family's commitment to philanthropy and their belief in uplifting the underprivileged. The Ambani family has always upheld the timeless Indic dictum, "Manav seva hi Madhav seva" – "Service to humanity is service to God." They have a tradition of beginning every major family occasion by providing for and serving others, reinforcing their commitment to the community. Smt. Nita Ambani and Shri Mukesh Ambani, accompanied by their family members, attended the function and extended their heartfelt wishes to the couples, adding a personal touch to the auspicious occasion. In a gesture of goodwill, each couple was presented with gold ornaments, including Mangalsutra, wedding rings, and nose rings. They also received silver ornaments such as toe rings and anklets. Additionally, each bride was given a cheque of Rs. 1.01 Lakh (One Lakh One Thousand) as her 'streedhan.' The couples were also gifted with grocery and household items sufficient for one year, including a variety of 36 essential items and utensils, appliances such as a gas stove, mixer, and fan, as well as a mattress and pillows.
