Using a Human Factors Framework for Safety and Organizational Excellence

Presenter: Danny Smith, SMS, CIT, Sr. Consultant, SafeStart
Thursday, Dec 9 | 11:30a.m. - 1p.m.

Developing an understanding of human factors - the people elements of systems and conditions - is key in achieving desired improvements in outcome reliability. Mastery of these concepts and the issues that arise from challenges associated with them provide a framework for consistent improvement. These gains are not limited to the area of safety, but also includes other key performance indicators such as quality, efficiency, performance and culture, which are affected by human factors.

The Power of OneSM - Changing the World One Person at a Time

Presenter: Allison Massari, allisonmassari.com
Friday, Dec 11 | 11:30a.m. - 1p.m.

Hailed as "life-changing," "riveting," "extraordinary," "bold," and "deeply moving," Allison Massari's triumphant keynote is packed with poignancy and insight. As the survivor of two life-threatening car accidents, and having suffered second and third degree burns on more than half of her body, Allison shares her story of absolute loss, to forgiveness and understanding, and finally to success and a life beyond anything she could have imagined. Her dynamic and deeply moving keynote offers applicable tools to rise above any obstacle and find peace, purpose, and happiness despite turbulent times. As Allison states, "The truth is, that the same internal fire and 'command of self' that I needed to heal my life is exactly what has given me success professionally."
