

YOU'RE INVITED!

May 12th-13th, 2020 Chula Vista

Wisconsin Council of Self Insurers

Annual Worker's Compensation College

Attendees at the College will follow the fictitious worker's compensation claims of Gomer Pyle v. Wally's Service Station and Barney Fife v. County of Mayberry from alleged injury to mock hearing.

The College is a two-day event, with instruction beginning Tuesday morning, May 12th, and ending Wednesday afternoon, May 13th. Attendees will follow the fictitious worker's compensation claims of Gomer (knee and shoulder) and Barney (back and psyche) from injury to mock hearing. The program will include discussion sessions, mock examinations and cross-examinations of medical, psychological and vocational experts, and a panel discussion on settlements. It will culminate with a two-hour mock worker's compensation hearing. The faculty includes experienced attorneys, doctors, psychologists, vocational consultants, and administrative law judges. Application for continuing education credits for human resource, insurance claims, and legal professionals has been made.

SPECIAL EVENTS

Aunt Bea's Evening Dinner Boat Cruise on the Wisconsin River will be offered for attendees who arrive on Monday, May 11th to "settle in" before instruction commences the following morning. On Tuesday evening, May 12th, attendees will travel by coach bus to the Al Ringling Mansion in Baraboo for dinner and a tour of the haunted mansion. The Madison bluegrass band "The Dang-Its" will perform at the dinner event.
