Living God’s Word

The disciples may have been a bit slow to understand how Jesus was re-defining the Messiah he was going to be, but they were not stupid on all accounts. They picked up on the reaction Peter got when he rebuked Jesus for talking about suffering rejection and death. So, when Jesus brought up the subject for a second time in today's Gospel, they just listened politely, then dropped back out of earshot and changed the subject to a more pleasant one--themselves, and who was the greatest.

Things must have gotten quite animated because when they got home, Jesus asked about it. Their silence surely disappointed him, since he could surmise what had engaged them. But like a good teacher, he tries another way to make his point. There must have been a child nearby, because he calls her over and places his arms protectively around her, and says to them, "If you want to be first, then be last. If you want to be in charge, then serve. When you take in the least, you take in not only me but my Father." Class dismissed.

It has proved a hard lesson to learn. Or maybe few of us really want to learn it. When you look out at the world, most seem to want to be first, the greatest, the one with the most and best toys, a wielder of power and influence and authority. Choosing to serve the least doesn't make the top ten on most people's "to do" list. James A. Wallace, C.Ss.R. Copyright (c) 2014, World Library Publications. All rights reserved.

Vivamos la Palabra de Dios

Señor, ayúdanos a cumplir con tu llamado de servir a “los más pequeños”, sobre todo a aquellos que tengan más probabilidades de ser objetos de la crueldad y la indiferencia del mundo. Susténtanos en esta obra con la garantía de que cuando los recibimos a ellos, te recibimos no sólo a ti sino también a aquél que te envió.
