

Career Planning

Degree Sequence

H.S. Hack

Paying for School

Occupation

Planning for a college and career can be a daunting task, however, there are various pathways to achieve success. Explore the options early and stay current with trends.

What do you like doing?

What's in demand?
Find the salary range

How do I know what careers are in demand?

Answer: U.S. Labor of Bureau and Statistics
Website: www.bls.gov
Occupation Outlook Handbook (OOH)

salary.com
glassdoor.com
ziprecruiter.com

Standard Diploma
High School

24 credits
18 CTE
GED

Associate's
A.A. / A.S.

[2-Year College]
60 credits

Approximately 20 classes
4-5 classes per Semester

Bachelor's
B.A. / B.S.

[4-Year School]
120 credits
(Associate + 60 credits)
Approximately 40 classes

Master's and Doctorate

[Grad School]
Master's
30-60 credits

Doctorate
60-120 credits
Approximately 20-40 classes

Dual Enrollment

Take college courses or Advanced Placement while in H.S. w/3.0 GPA

Tuition
In-state tuition
Out-of-state tuition

Scholarships
Awarded for achievement,
needs, or other criteria

Loans
(Borrowed Money)
Subsidized v. Unsubsidized

SAT

Take test Freshman year
and every year

FASFA
Free application with government to determine eligibility for financial aid

Grants
Free money; no repayment

Work and Work-Study

Volunteer

volunteer 100 hours (working counts as well)

People
(Network)

Maintain three points of development while pursuing your career planning; People, Paper, and Practice. People will provide references and sponsorship for opportunity. Practice will build up your experience making you ready for skill-based hiring. Paper provide the credentials for the role.

Paper (Credentials)

Practice
(Experience)

