

Code of Honor Pledge

In The Code of Honor Pledge I fully recognize my commitment to a Christian lifestyle and a concept of personal honor based on the principles of integrity and reverence to God, esteem for man and respect for social and spiritual laws. Therefore:

I promise to apply myself wholeheartedly to my academic studies and to use the full powers of my mind for the glory of God.

I promise to grow in my spirit in developing my own relationship with God through prayer and the reading of the Word.

I promise to cultivate good relationships socially with others and to seek to love others as I love myself.

I promise to keep myself under subjection from all immoral and illegal acts and habits, whether on or off campus. I will refrain from illegal drugs, illicit sexual acts. I will not drink alcoholic beverages of any kind, I will not use tobacco, I will not engage in other behavior that is contrary to the rules and regulations listed in the Student Handbook.

I promise to do my best to know and follow God’s will for my life.

I promise to respect the things of God; the vision, the pastor and president of DFMSBS, the church and its leadership, the faculty and staff, and my fellow classmates.

I promise to responsibly serve in the area of my choice with integrity and a humble heart of servanthood.

I promise to attend class as required, chapel services and to be regular attendance at my local church.

I promise to fulfill all financial obligations that I enter into while enrolled at DFMI School of Biblical Studies.

I COVENANT to abide by the rules and regulations which may from time to time be adopted by the School Administration. I understand DFMSBS is a private school and I therefore have no vested rights in the governing of the school. I accept my attendance at DFMI School of Biblical Studies as a PRIVILEGE and NOT a right . . . and the School reserves the right to require the withdrawal of a student upon the judgment of the Discipline Committee under the direction of the President. I understand my signature below is my acceptance of the entire Code of Honor and completes a contract between me and DFMI School of Biblical Studies which becomes a part of my permanent file.
