When Selig H. Breakstone, Wilkes-Barre Postoffice clerk, left today for the U. S. Army reception center at New Cumberland, a rather remarkable family military service record was revealed.

He was the sixth in the family of Albert Breakstone, 167 New Mallery Place, city, to enter the service, four brothers and a sister of Selig having gone before him.

And that isn't all. The only one left home, Louise, has made application to enter the WAVES. Another daughter of Mr. Breakstone, Hannah, three weeks ago married Corp. Sidney Schwartz of Scranton, and is with him at Atlanta. Still another daughter, Adele (Ganny) Ganaposki, a member of the WAVES, is the wife of Ganaposki, former all-around athlete here, and now Sergeant of police at Picatinny Arsenal, Dover, N. J.

The five sons of Mr. Breakstone who are in the U. S. Army are: Pvt. Adelbert, Fort Benning, Ga.; Pvt. Merton and Pvt. Royal, both in England; Pvt. Bernard, Camp Shelby, Miss.; Pvt. Selig H., off for New Cumberland today.

Mrs. Ganaposki, the sixth member of the family, is an apprentice seaman at Bloomington, Ind.

The Breakstones are members of B'nai Brith Synagogue, city.
