

for Fox Films.

Universal made an interesting cinematic production of Charles Dickens' melodramatic novel, "Great Expectations." Henry Hull plays Magwitch effectively and Florence Reed gives an outstandingly fine performance as Miss Havisham. Jane Wyatt is lovely as Estella and Phillips Holmes and George Breakstone are excellent as the elder and younger Pip. Stuart Walker directed the story intelligently and cleverly transferred the eerie atmosphere of the book to the screen.