

TAXICAB MURDER MYSTERY

The above photo-diagram shows how Nathaniel R. Breakstone of 1501 South Springfield avenue, a Yellow taxi driver, is supposed to have met his death late Wednesday night under the windows of Mrs. Anita Williams and Mrs. Meta Streich at 2454 Rice street, which are shown in the picture. The two women have been arrested, as have Samuel Kurch of 2443 Augusta street and a man known only as "Tony." There is no evidence against them, but the police have not finished questioning them.

[TRIBUNE Photo.]

Nathaniel R. Breakstone, victim of the murder mystery, to solve which the Yellow Taxicab company offers rewards of $1,500.

French troops mobilized for service in the Ruhr district.

Conservative newspapers this morning print a story of a mutiny in the 112th infantry regiment at Toulon, where a noncommissioned officer was pelted with stones and seriously injured by men of the 1919 class.

Humanite declares that certain units of this class, while entraining for the Ruhr district, sang the "Internationale," the soviet Russian anthem.

Red Agitators Busy.

Red agitators have been using the mobilization for extensive propaganda among the impressionable boys from 22 to 23 years old who were called for duty in the occupied zone. Since it has become apparent that the Ruhr district will not be occupied, the propagandists have redoubled their efforts.

This propaganda movement has been traced directly to Moscow's propagand-

Mrs. Anita Williams, under whose windows Breakstone was shot. She admits Breakstone had called on her several times.

Northwest Suburbs Seek Funds for New Hospital

Leading citizens of Jefferson Park, Norwood Park, Edison Park, and Park Ridge, working in coöperation with the physicians of those suburbs, are asking the support of the people of the district for an eighty-five bed hospital which they propose to build in Raven street between Oak Park and Newcastle streets, Norwood Park. At a recent meeting a board of directors for the proposed institution was elected and an organization to gather data and funds was effected. Dr. Leon Bowes of Norwood Park is president of the board; Fred B. Esdorch of Jefferson Park is treasurer, and Fred Stagg of Park Ridge is secretary.