Doorman Shoots Girl, Kills Self At Miami Beach

MIAMI BEACH, Fla., Aug. 13—(INS)—A 45-year-old Miami Beach nightclub doorman shot himself to death today after critically wounding the girl who spurned his love for that of his roommate.

Det. Charles Pierce said it was an apparent case of attempted murder and suicide. He added that the girl was engaged to marry the victim's roommate.

The man, Eddie Breakstone, died almost immediately from a bullet wound in the head.

Lynn Decker, 24, the girl, was rushed to a hospital for an emergency operation. She was shot in the temple.

The shooting occurred at an apartment hotel where Breakstone and Miss Decker both lived.

Det. Pierce said Miss Decker was engaged to Breakstone's roommate, Edward Warner, and that both men were in love with her.

Breakstone worked as a doorman at the Five O'Clock Club. Miss Decker is employed by a department store.
