

High School in 1898. He was a member of the Glen Ridge Congregational Church.

In 1916 Mr. Crockett joined the Scovill-Wellington Co. that later became part of the McKinsey organization. He was named partner in charge of the New York office in 1935 and managing partner four years later. Mr. Crockett retired in 1956.

Mr. Crockett served as president of the Association of Consulting Management Engineers from 1950 to 1955. He has been a member of the budget committee of the Montclair Community Chest and in 1950 served as chairman of the memorial gifts committee of Community Hospital's building fund.

Survivors include a son, Horace G. Crockett Jr. of Wellesley Hills, Mass.; two grandchildren and a great grandson.

Julius Cohen, 73, Owned Grocery

Julius Cohen of 48 Glenridge Ave., for many years the owner of an Italian grocery store in Montclair, died Sunday in Mountainside Hospital. He was 73.

Born in Russia, Mr. Cohen had lived nearly 50 years in Montclair. He owned and operated an Italian grocery in Montclair for 43 years.

He was a member of the Flora Goldman Family Circle.

He leaves his wife, Mrs. Beulah Cohen; two sons, Bernard I. Cohen of West Caldwell and Albert L. Cohen of West Orange; a daughter, Mrs. Sylvia Kayman of Livingston; a brother, Max Cohen of Paterson; two sisters, Mrs. Sarah Berkowitz and Mrs. Minnie Breakstone of the Bronx, and nine grandchildren.

Services were held Sunday at the Suburban Chapel of Philip Apter & Son, Maplewood. Rabbi Alter Kriegel of Verona officiated.

Mrs. Jennie Gilbert Was With YMCA

Funeral services for Mrs. Jennie Stone Gilbert of 176 Christopher St., a former employe of the Montclair YMCA, will be held this morning at 11 o'clock at the Funeral Home of Arthur K. Brown, Inc. The Rev. Raymond T. Bynum of the Presbyterian Church of Upper Montclair will officiate. Mrs. Gilbert died Monday at home. She was 79.

Mrs. Gilbert was born in Dallas, Tex. She was a member of the staff of the Montclair YMCA from 1926 until her retirement in 1946 as hostess in charge of the dormitory at 25 Park St. During World War I she served overseas with the Red Cross.

She was a member of Central Presbyterian Church and the Business and Professional Women's Club of Montclair.

She leaves a cousin, Mrs. Rhoda Curran of Belleville.

I have great faith in fools; self-confidence my friends call it.—Edgar Allan Poe.