

Justice Do nohue's Court.

Urick Aksonef, a Hungarian, of Edwardsville, was charged with cheating and attempting to defraud B. Breakstone, the fruit merchant. Breakstone, so he says, some time ago purchased for the defendant sufficient material to inaugurate housekeeping, for which pay was promised by the prisoner in installments. He failed to meet his promises and was making preparations to decamp to other parts with Breakstone's goods when he was arrested. Bail was asked in $300 for trial in court. Aksonef could not furnish it and went to jail.
