

Brothers Litigate.

Abram Breakstone was charged by his brother, Bernard Breakstone, before Alderman Donahue last evening with having appropriated pass-books belonging to Dr. Gumpert, for whom B. Breakstone was managing a store; and with resisting Constable Haycock while the latter was armed with a search-warrant for the recovery of the pass-books. The testimony was very much mixed but amusing, and resulted in Abram being held in $500 bail in two cases, Dr. Gumpert and Harry Saleburz becoming his surety.
