

ran-
Mr.
the
ssue.
while rned

Yesterday as a volunteer Candidate.

Temple B'nai B'rith Plans Dedication Of Service Flag

At the service on Friday evening at 7:30 at Temple B'nai B'rith, South Washington street, a Service Flag honoring those in the armed services, will be dedicated. Brief addresses will be delivered by Mayor Charles N. Loveland, Major Samuel Bloch and Rabbi Samuel Wolk.

Thirty-five of the congregation's members and confirmants are represented on the flag. One family that of Albert Breakstone is represented by six children in the service, five sons and one daughter.

There will be a special ritual to which all are invited.

Those in the service include: Harry Bahny, Justin Bergman, Jr., Samuel Bloch, Eugene Brandstadter, Albert Breakstone, Bernard Breakstone, Morton Breakstone, Royal Breakstone, Selig H. Breakstone, Adele Breakstone Ganny, Joseph Coons, David Corner, S. J. Freeman, Karl Glou, Mortimer Goldsmith, Jr., Robert Goldsmith, Daniel Hinerfeld, Perry Garnofsky, Dr. Samuel Kaufman, Richard Lawrence, Ned Levey, Robert E. Lewis, Henry A. Long, Sydney Mendelsohn, Harold Miller, Samuel Z. Moskowitz, Charles Pffiferling, Jr., David Present, Lehman Rosenberg, Joseph Salsburg, Frederic Salzman, Joseph Morris Schain, Melvin Schlom, Arthur Silverblatt, Dr. William Stavsky, Jack Trumpeter.

's
d
ar
Al-
for-
Mr.
Row
d in g to anda
tant
e in tele-
nter,
been
Mrs.
Al-ser-
side
anda
nue,
ated
the n
er