

World War 2 Veteran Dies

Morton Breakstone Will Be Buried at Arlington
Cemetery Today

Morton "Mike" Breakstone, 33, son of Albert Breakstone, 167 New Mallery Place, and who was well known throughout Wyoming Valley because of his many activities, died Sunday at the Veterans Hospital at Philadelphia.

Deceased, a veteran of World War 2, died following an operation for wounds received while a member of the 29th Infantry Division overseas.

A native of Wilkes-Barre, he was a member of the varsity football squad at Meyers High School. He recently appeared in the Little Theatre production, "On Borrowed Time."

Breakstone was heard over local radio stations and served as a master of ceremonies when the Freedom Train appeared in Wilkes-Barre.

In addition to his father, he is survived by his brothers and sisters: Selig, Delbert, Royal, Bernard, Louise, Hannah and Adele.

Burial will take place at Arlington National Cemetery this afternoon at 2:30.

FUNERAL

Veteran Dies

MORTON BREAKSTONE

OBITUARY

(See OBITUARIES on Page 21)

CHARLES SCHWETZER

Charles Schwetzer, formerly of Wyoming, died yesterday morning at his home at Mehoopany. Deceased was born in Germany and spent most of his life in Wyoming.