

B'nai B'rith to Dedicate Flag

35 Congregation Members E
Are in Various Services of United States

At the services this evening at 7:30 at Temple B'nai B'rith, South Washington Street, a service flag will be dedicated honoring those from the congregation in the armed services.

Brief address will be given by Mayor Charles N. Loveland, Major Samuel Bloch of the Induction Center and Rabbi Samuel Wolk.

Thirty-five stars are displayed on the flag by the members of the congregation and confirmants, with the family of Albert Breakstone, representing five sons and daughter in the service.

There will be a special ritual and music program to which all are invited.

Those in the service from the congregation include Harry Bahny, Justin Bergman, Jr., Samuel Bloch, Eugene Brandstadter, Albert Breakstone, Morton Breakstone, Royal Breakstone, Selig H. Breakstone, Adele Breakstone Ganny, Joseph Coons, David Corner, S. J. Freeman, Karl Glou, Mortimer Goldsmith, Jr., Robert Goldsmith, Daniel Hinerfeld, Perry Karnofsky, Dr. Samuel Kaufman, Richard Lawrence, Ned Levey, Robert E. Lewis, Henry A. Long, Sydney Mendelsohn, Harold Miller, Samuel Z. Moskowitz, Charles Pfifferling, Jr., David Present, Lehman Rosenberg, Joseph Salsburg, Frederic Salzman, Joseph Morris Schain, Melvin Schlom, Arthur Silverblatt, Dr. William Stavsky and Jack Trumpetter.

Services will continue tomorrow morning at 10:45.