Three Breakstone Brothers Reunited In Army Overseas

Headquarters, European Theater of Operations, April 27—After a two-year separation, Private Morton Breakstone, son of Albert Breakstone, of 167 New Mallory Place, Wilkes-Barre, Pa., was reunited with two of his brothers, Corporal Adelbert and Private First Class Royal Breakstone, at a U. S. Army replacement depot in England.

Four others of the Breakstone family are in the armed forces. Selig and Bernard, both privates first class, are in the Army, and Louise and Adele have joined the WAVES.

The brothers formerly worked together at their father's lumber company in Wilkes-Barre.

Ham Fisher, of "Joe Palooka" fame, a cousin of the Breakstones, has used their name in his comic strip.
