

PRESS RELEASE

For Immediate Release: March 8th, 2018

BANQUET: Churchill Society of Tennessee.

Saturday March 24th. 2018. The University Club, Campus of Vanderbilt University.

The culmination of a two-day Conference on Sir Winston Churchill “Mine Eyes Have Seen the Glory” will be a Black Tie Banquet featuring his great-grandson Randolph Churchill. He will use the title “From Darkest Hour to His Finest Hour” to highlight his great-grandfather’s long life, which was varied and controversial. The recent movie “Darkest Hour”, with the 2018 Oscar’s best actor Gary Oldman in the role of Churchill, emphasizes the steel will and skilled statesmanship Churchill needed to convince his colleagues of the necessity to go to war and eventually vanquish Adolf Hitler. This talk by Randolph Churchill will present fresh information on his forbear’s tenacity and courage.

To register for this exquisite opportunity go to www.churchillsocietytn.org. Sign-up for only the special Banquet on the occasion of the visit of Churchill’s great-grandson, Mr. Randolph Churchill to the USA. The evening is open to anyone who is interested in Sir Winston Churchill and his indomitable spirit, where the sign-up is at a modest cost of $75 per person.

ALSO SEE OTHER OPPORTUNITIES FOR PARTICIPATION IN THE CONFERENCE AT THE WEBSITE INCLUDING THE NASHVILLE SYMPHONY ON FRIDAY NIGHT WITH THE VIOLINS OF HOPE. [See attached information.]
