

EduVitality®

EduVitality helps communities align their people, resources, and systems around shared purpose.

By strengthening connections across education, business, and community, individual assets and efforts can become greater collective capacity, building places where people belong, grow, and stay.