

U.S. Global Value Chain Coalition

2016-2018

Awarded Great Places to Work certification two consecutive years.

Intradeco Apparel

Founded in 1982, and with deep roots in the textile industry since 1921, Intradeco has grown into a global vertical-manufacturing company, supplying quality casual clothing and thermal underwear to major retailers in the United States, Mexico and Canada.

Mission

The U.S. Global Value Chain (USGVC) Coalition is on a mission to educate policy-makers and the public about the American jobs and the domestic economic growth our companies generate through their value chains.

Over 600 Employees

Types of U.S. Employment

- Design • Merchandising • Product development
- Supply chain • Sales & Marketing • Logistics.

Committed to the environment

Intradeco is committed to sustainable practices, social compliance, and conservation of our natural resources.

Continuous improvement and focus on sustainability includes water management including reverse Osmosis water recycling systems, energy efficiency facilities and renewable energy generation through solar panels and biomass.

Committed to the community.

As a Great Place to Work certified company, Intradeco provides enhanced training and development for its employees as well as supports local community charities and social programs such as, Children's Shelter, Breast Cancer Awareness, and God's Love We Deliver, among others.