

PRACTICE READINESS CHECKLIST

A self-assessment for exploring professional supervised visitation.

Supervised Visitation Practice Starter Session

Introductory educational resource

GEORGIA SUPERVISED VISITATION TRAINING INSTITUTE

Mark each statement based on where you are today. This is a planning tool, not a certification assessment or legal determination.

Readiness Statement	Yes	Developing	Not Yet
PROFESSIONAL FIT I can remain neutral when adults disagree or attempt to influence me.	☐	☐	☐
I am comfortable observing carefully and separating facts from assumptions.	☐	☐	☐
I can communicate and enforce boundaries respectfully.	☐	☐	☐
I can remain composed in emotionally charged situations.	☐	☐	☐
I am organized, punctual, and able to maintain accurate records.	☐	☐	☐
PRACTICE READINESS I understand that the work extends beyond the face-to-face visit.	☐	☐	☐
I have identified the services and geographic area I may want to offer.	☐	☐	☐
I understand the need for written policies, agreements, and payment procedures.	☐	☐	☐
I understand the need for structured intake and case screening.	☐	☐	☐
I understand that documentation and recordkeeping require consistent systems.	☐	☐	☐
I have considered safety, insurance, business protections, and risk management.	☐	☐	☐
MARKET READINESS I have researched whether supervised	☐	☐	☐

GEORGIA SUPERVISED VISITATION TRAINING INSTITUTE

visitation services are needed in my area.
I can identify professional communities that may encounter families needing these services.	☐	☐	☐
I understand that referral development requires professional relationships and credibility.	☐	☐	☐
I am prepared to communicate my scope and boundaries clearly.	☐	☐	☐
PROFESSIONAL PREPARATION I have researched requirements that may apply in my jurisdiction or intended referral settings.	☐	☐	☐
I recognize that low startup overhead does not eliminate professional responsibility.	☐	☐	☐
I am willing to complete structured preparation before accepting cases.	☐	☐	☐
I understand that this Starter Session is introductory and does not authorize me to practice.	☐	☐	☐

Your Readiness Snapshot

My strongest area: _____

My biggest preparation gap: _____

What I need to research locally: _____

My next action within 7 days: _____

READY TO GO DEEPER? If your checklist confirms that you want to pursue the field, the next step is structured professional preparation. Your $57 Starter Session purchase may be credited toward Certificate Program enrollment when you enroll within 30 calendar days, subject to the stated terms.