Our Mission and Vision

We believe that no matter the walk of life you come from, the individual deserves the right for a wholesome living and vocational atmosphere geared towards providing a chance to succeed to their highest potential.

"One Community, Countless Possibilities"

We believe no matter the walk of life, the individual deserves the right to a wholesome community- living atmosphere geared towards providing them a chance to succeed. Our approach is grounded in empathy, respect, and cultural sensitivity. Each individual has their own specific plan that caters to their strengths, goals and wishes for a meaningful life.

Our Services

Day Supports

Consisting of various activities such as Entrepreneurship Program, Art, Music, Diversity Program, Science and Exploration, Movement and Exercise, Life skills, Food and Nutrition and Community Engagement.

Each program is specifically designed to improve the skills the individual currently has while introducing new skills and learning methods.

Residential

We offer two Accredited and Licensed facilities located in Davidson County. Locations are not disclosed to protect our resident's privacy.

We offer hands on ADLs to ambulatory adults.
