For subsequent similar instances of impoundment, the owner shall be charged collection and impoundment fees equal to such basic fees multiplied by the number of times animals owned or controlled by such owner have been impounded under the provisions of subsection G1 of this Section. For the purpose of establishing the amount of such multiple fees, any impoundment occurring more than two (2) years previously shall be disregarded.

carry on, or to do any act as assistant, umpire, principal, spectator or otherwise, in aid of or calculated to encourage or further any fight between animals.

B. Cruelty: It shall be unlawful for any person to overdrive, overload, torture or cruelly beat, or unjustifiably injure, maim, mutilate or kill any animal, whether belonging to himself or to another, or deprive any animal under his control of shelter from the elements (which shelter must be of adequate size to allow the animal to stand erect with reasonable room for bodily movement and excretory functions, must have adequate ventilation, must be heated or cooled if necessary to maintain reasonable temperatures for the species of such animal, must provide a shaded area for such animal for refuge from direct rays of the sun, and must be kept reasonably clean and free from offensive odors, animal wastes, and other unwholesome or unsanitary conditions), or deprive such animal of necessary wholesome food and potable water, or to willfully instigate, engage in, or in any way further an act of cruelty to any animal or any act tending to produce such cruelty. It shall be unlawful for any person to ride or drive a horse while such person is under the influence of any intoxicant or any controlled substance. It shall be unlawful for any person to buy, sell, trade, barter or otherwise obtain or dispose of any dog or cat, whether alive or dead, or to kill such animal, with the intent or reasonable expectation that such dog or cat will be used as a source of food for any human being or for any other animal. Nothing herein contained shall be construed to prohibit or interfere with the Animal Control Officer or the health officer in the exercise and performance of their powers and duties.

C. Abandoning Injured Animals: It shall be unlawful for any person owning, possessing or having the care, custody and control of a maimed, disabled or infirm animal, to abandon the same, or leave it to die in a public street, road, alley or other public place, or upon the private property of another person.

D. This subsection shall not be construed to prohibit the display or sale of natural chicks, rabbits, ducklings or other fowl, in proper brooder facilities by hatcheries or stores engaged in the business of selling the same to be raised for commercial purposes.

J. Reporting Killed Or Injured Animals: Every operator of any vehicle on the roads or streets of the City who shall strike any animal causing injury or death to such animal shall stop and give such aid to such animal as he is reasonably able to render. In the absence of the owner of such animal at the scene, it is the duty of such operator to notify such owner if such owner's identity can be determined, and to take such animal if injured to the nearest available veterinarian or animal hospital. Whether or not such owner can be notified, such operator must notify the Animal Control Officer or any police officer of the City, reporting the circumstances of the striking of such animal. Any animal injured by a vehicle while not in the presence of its owner and not wearing identification shall be considered to be an animal at large.

If no contact can be made after reasonable effort, said officer may enter upon the property to examine or capture any animal thereon or thereat; provided, said officer shall not enter a house used as a residence without first obtaining a search warrant from a magistrate having jurisdiction.
