

Ventura Braves Baseball Club Code of Conduct

The Ventura Braves Baseball Club (the "Club") is committed to promoting good sportsmanship, teamwork, and respect for all players, coaches, parents, and spectators. The Club expects all players, parents, and staff to conduct themselves in a manner that reflects positively on the Club and upholds its values. The following code of conduct sets forth the standards of behavior expected of all individuals associated with the Club:

Respect for Others: All players, parents, and staff shall treat others with respect, dignity, and courtesy at all times. Verbal abuse, harassment, or any other disrespectful behavior will not be tolerated.

Sportsmanship: All players, parents, and staff shall demonstrate good sportsmanship at all times. This includes respecting the decisions of the officials, treating opponents with respect, and accepting victory and defeat graciously.

Positive Attitude: All players, parents, and staff shall maintain a positive attitude and refrain from making derogatory comments or actions towards others. This includes social media posts.

Responsibility: All players, parents, and staff shall be responsible for their own actions, including any damage caused to property or equipment.

Safety: All players, parents, and staff shall prioritize safety in all aspects of the game. This includes adhering to all rules and guidelines set forth by the Club and its coaching staff.

Attendance: All players shall attend all practices, games, and other scheduled events unless excused by the coaching staff.

Communication: All players, parents, and staff shall communicate in a respectful and timely manner with each other and the coaching staff.

Compliance: All players, parents, and staff shall comply with all rules, policies, and procedures set forth by the Club and its coaching staff.

Consequences of Violation

Any violation of the above code of conduct may result in disciplinary action, including but not limited to, suspension, removal from the Club, or any other appropriate action deemed necessary by the coaching staff or Club officials. Club participation fees will not be refunded if dismissed from the club for violating the above code of conduct.
