

2020 Conference Courses & Training

Next Level Tactical Leadership Provided by Traditional Excellence

Next Level Tactical Leadership – June 2nd and June 3rd. (June 4th participants are able to attend debriefs and trade show). This course is designed for alumni of the Tactical Team Leader Course who have continued to grow, learn and excel at new positions, levels of rank in their respective services.

The 2 day package will feature interactive discussion, guest speaker(s), open forum, experiential group activities (including fitness) and network sharing/building. Participants can expect to leave these full days re-energized, re-engaged, and re-equipped to continue their contributions to Canadian Tactical Policing.

Steve Nash - is a retired Lieutenant-Colonel and Infantry-Airborne-Ranger with almost 25 years of military experience serving Canada at home and abroad. Having served most of his military career in operational units, he has also served as an instructor/mentor for officers at the Canadian Land Forces Command and Staff College in Kingston. In addition to commanding at the platoon level (40 people) and company level (150 people) for over 10 years; he also served as a staff officer for both operations (600 people) and personnel administration (4500 people). With experience in airborne, airmobile and specialist/light infantry units in jungle, mountain, desert, arctic, urban and CBRNE environments, he is a Distinguished Honor Graduate of US Army Ranger School. Steve was also selected to serve in Canada's Special Operations community where he completed his military service as Operations Officer, Deputy Commanding Officer and then Commanding Officer within Canada's two strategic 'special mission' units.

As a student of leadership and human dynamic, Steve has worked with a wide variety of organizations (RCMP, Tier 1 SOF, FBI Academy Association, Ontario Tactical Advisory Body, Iron Stride Triathlon Training, Corrections Ontario, Probation Officers Association of Ontario, Ontario Association of Chiefs of Police, Ontario Police Association, Canadian Forces College, 2 CF Flight Training School, St Lawrence College, Queen's University, Halton Regional Police, Kingston Police, and Regina Police SWAT Roundup) through presentations and workshops to assist in considering best practices, building best teams with best leaders and achieving best results. Of note, Steve has worked with OTAB since 2005 in creating and conducting the challenging and successful Tactical Team Leaders' Course.

He has a BA from RRCM/RMC (89) and an MDS (03) from RMC as well as a Bachelor (10) and Master (12) Degree in Education with Leadership specialty.

Steve has studied martial arts for over 33 years and was graded to 8th degree black belt in January 2014 by Takemasa Okuyama. Further, he is an unarmed combat, use of force, and defensive tactics instructor.

He has been married to Kim for more than 25 years and has two girls, 23 and 21

Less Lethal Instructor Course

Training Syllabus

Course Name: CTS Chemical Munitions (Instructor Certification Course)

Duration: 1 Day

Class Size: Maximum 20 Participants

Course Training Objectives:

- History and uses for chemical agents or riot control agents (RCA)
- Identify the types of chemical agents
- Describe the forms of chemical agents and methods of dissemination
- Discuss the purpose of chemical agents
- Explain the proper storage and maintenance of chemical agents
- Discuss tactical considerations for deploying chemical agents
- Demonstrate deployment procedures for crowd management and tactical deployment
- Review available chemical agents and smoke from CTS
- Review of launching platforms
 - Maintenance
 - Malfunction Drills

Eligibility: Restricted to Law Enforcement and Military Personnel only

Training Standards: Participants must pass a written examination and demonstrate a level of proficiency on range activities.

Dress: Tactical Dress

Equipment Required: Gas Masks, Nomex Gloves, Ear and Eye Protection

Special Note: Participants will be using live munitions and will be subjected to live munition exposure drills

Training Syllabus

Course Name: CTS Flash Bang (Instructor Certification Course)

Duration: 1 Day

Class Size: Maximum 20 Participants

Course Training Objectives:

- Discuss Types of Explosions
- Primary and Secondary Effects of an Explosion
- History and types of Diversionary Devices
- Specifications of Model 7290 Flash Bang
- Model 7200 Series Training System
- M201 Fuze/Safety Data Sheet/Fuze Firing Sequence
- Deployment of Flash Bang/Hang Fire. Misfire or Failure
- Sound and Decibel Levels
- Secondary Blast Pressure Effects
- Instructor Checklist– Hands-on Training
- ATF and DOT Regulations
- Flash Bang Terms and Definitions
- Specifications Sheets
- Certification Test

Eligibility: Restricted to Law Enforcement and Military Personnel only

Training Standards: Participants must pass a written examination and demonstrate a level of proficiency on range activities.

Dress: Tactical Dress

Equipment Required: Gas Masks, Nomex Gloves, Ear and Eye Protection

Special Note: Participants will be using live munitions and will be subjected to live munition exposure drills

Mechanical Breaching Course

Course description coming soon.